A 49-year-old man was chased by a French assistant manager at a McDonald's restaurant after refusing to stop taking photos of a female colleague while she was on a work trip in Dijon. The woman was a colleague of the assistant manager. The assistant manager has reportedly been fired for that incident. The guy, identified as Alexandre, claims he took the photos because he wanted a souvenir. "He said: 'I saw you taking a photo of the woman... And you, you're taking a photo of her?' And I said, 'She's my friend,' which I am," Alexandre told BFM TV, adding that he later apologized. "It is true that we want the image of the man who was fired," he said, referring to the assistant manager. "But we will allow the camera and the photo 09e8f5149f
